

February 2019

Snacking Consumption Habits - Brazil

“One of the main challenges for the snacks market in the coming years is reducing salt and sugar content from products (due to legal requirements and consumer demand) while keeping an attractive taste. Agreements signed by the industry with the government for the reduction of substances such as salt and ...