Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“The UK left the EU with consumers still expecting Brexit to have a negative overall effect, but with much more positive views than in previous months. The clarity provided by the General Election and delivery of Brexit, continued high employment and above-inflation wage rises, have combined to pushed Mintel’s consumer ...

Attitudes towards Healthy Eating - UK

“People’s openness to reformulation is good news for the industry, faced with government targets to make their products healthier, but also adds to the pressure to do so. That many would even welcome punitive measures such as taxing unhealthy foods provides food for thought for the government, but also to ...

Feminine Hygiene and Sanitary Protection Products - UK

“The feminine hygiene and sanitary protection category has been steadily growing in recent years, bolstered by strong sales in the incontinence sector and a beauty revamp of the feminine hygiene sector. The sanitary protection sector, however, is dampening growth; signalling that brands must do more to respond to growing environmental ...

First Aid - UK

“The value of the first aid category has fluctuated in recent years and is estimated to show significant decline in 2019 due to reduced NPD and competition from the private label sector. Future growth will come from brands offering consumers added value propositions, as well as engaging with them using ...

Managing a Healthy Lifestyle - UK

“Belying the fairly bleak picture of the nation’s health, commercial opportunities for companies to engage with consumers by providing health-boosting help and support have never been greater. Consumers exhibit a keen appetite for the latest technological health solutions, with DNA-tailored solutions and sophisticated biometric tracking likely to become increasingly popular ...
