

March 2021

The Night In - Ireland

“COVID-19 has dramatically shifted spending from night-out activities to in-home activities as consumers continue to show concern relating to virus exposure, and lockdowns prevent consumers from engaging in entertainment out of home. Big winners in this regard have been streaming services and online shopping for leisure which have seen brisk ...