Later Life Financial Planning: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“COVID-19 has been a crisis of later life health but has not caused a crisis of later life finances. Consumers’ financial planning for their later years is still focussed on ensuring sufficient income and staying in their home for as long as possible. Long-term care needs, however, remain largely neglected ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook: Inc Impact of COVID-19 - UK

“The UK is in the midst of its deepest recession on record. However, the recovery has already started, with monthly GDP growth in May and June. However, the winding down of state support for businesses presents renewed threats that could derail the recovery and is expected to lead to significant ...

Consumers and Online Financial Advice - UK

“Automation and the shift towards digitisation are making financial advice more accessible and affordable, a trend that is set to finally democratise the market. Consumers, particularly younger ones, are generally open to robo-advice services, and people are not against paying for these as long as cost-savings are passed on to ...

Consumers and the Economic Outlook - UK

“The UK left the EU with consumers still expecting Brexit to have a negative overall effect, but with much more positive views than in previous months. The clarity provided by the General Election and delivery of Brexit, continued high employment and above-inflation wage rises, have combined to pushed Mintel’s consumer ...

Retirement Planning - UK

“More people are saving for retirement than ever before, but that doesn’t mean they’re saving enough. A transformation in how we live and work demands a fundamental rethink of how longer-term savings are designed, to ensure they remain relevant and realistic in preparing people for the future, whatever it may ...
