

April 2021*Online and Mobile Retailing - Ireland

“COVID-19 has drastically propelled consumers’ engagement with online shopping. As a result of store closures and mounting anxiety about in-store shopping, more shoppers moved online and there has been significant infrastructure investment to support future demands. The future of ecommerce looks promising, though online is not immune to fragile consumer ...