

Household - Canada

January 2020

Major Household Appliances - Canada

"While much of the discussion around major household appliances revolves around smart technology, the reality is most remain interested in 'the basics'. Namely, they want functional appliances, which is another way of saying that they do not break down often and 'just work'. That said, younger adults who are more ...